North Metro Fire Rescue District

Architecture by Development Strategies Group, Newport Beach, California and Allred & Associates, Broomfield, Colorado.

$13.9 million, fire, maintenance & training campus

"This was a huge project for us—it's a state of the art facility with almost two million dollars worth of fire simulation props. Quality was always the priority. I am very pleased with the quality; absolutely proud of what we got."

—Chief John O'Hayre, North Metro Fire Rescue District
